Ministry to Sierra Leone, Africa; Town of Makeni
Open Air Crusade, Day 2

Tony:

We arrived at the Crusade site tonight and we could just tell that something wasn't right. The atmosphere was flat, the people were in a stupor and 'program-type' stuff was occupying the platform. People were already leaving as it was too much like a pre-programmed 'church service.' It cannot stay like this; no anointing, no sense of His Presence. We prayed and trusted for a breakthrough, trusting for a release of the answers to your intercessory prayers. Emmanuel stood up to introduce us and he broke into praise (the dancing kind of praise) and we began to feel a shift starting. They gave over to us and I knew that Holy Spirit had to have His Way NOW and we needed to move quickly to miracle mode. A few words about Jesus and His Kingdom and then some words of knowledge and about 30 people came up and we began demonstrating.

We invited the witches and warlocks to come forward to see what The Real Power is. Those folks really wanted to see reality, but were not seeing it in the Church, so they turned to the demonic power. All of a sudden His Anointing hit like lightning. The Pastors became quickly excited to see how powerfully Holy Spirit was flowing thru them. Many, many witches and warlocks came, were touched by God, received Jesus as Lord and Savior and got delivered from the demonic powers. Hallelujah! What a sight. I later found out that before we were given the service, those ambassadors of satan were causing commotion out in the crowd. They were mocking and casting curses. Somehow, thru the powerful love of God, they were drawn to come forward. The Pastors were so excited to see the witches yielding to the Lordship of Jesus and coming to Him. There were a number of people that were manifesting both the power of God and demons (as they were coming out)! There were non-stop testimonies of lives being changed and healed. The eyes of all the people were upon us as we prayed for the first several people. At the moment I felt was right, we gave an invitation for the people who were witnessing the evidence that Jesus Is Alive, to come and be saved. The horse race was on. I don't understand why they were running all over each other to get to the front, but it was real cool to see. A very high percentage of the people are being saved.

Some of what I personally saw:

- Many tormented by torturing demons, many just having received Jesus tonight, they had their first deliverance. Again and again I heard “something has just left me, something just came out of me and I am free, Oh My God it is gone!”
- A young boy blind with one of his eyes being completely white and bulged way out. After a couple rounds of prayer, he was looking all around and seeing us. He had to be led up to the stage to stand in front of us, but left without any assistance.
- I had given a word for someone with a bad left hand thumb joint. Weird, huh? Well, with all the pastors praying, what is the chance of that person showing up in front of me for prayer? With God, get ready. This lady was sharing how whenever she tried to use her thumb, there would be pains shooting thru her hand. In just a few seconds of Anointing she laughed as full mobility returned to her hand.
- A lady brought a man maybe 30 years old. He just stood there with a stupefied look on his face almost like he was in a trance. We asked what the problem was and he said nothing, but the girl said “he is insane, he is a crazy man, he cannot talk and doesn’t understand anything that you say, his mind is gone, he cannot take care of himself!” We have thousands of people in this condition in metal wards in hospitals all over the US. We prayed and commanded the insane spirit to leave him and for the restoration of his mind and senses. For a creative miracle for his brain. After praying just once, I was really expecting we would have to pray a few more times. I looked him in the eyes and said, “what is happening to you?” Suddenly, he spoke, completely normal and said, “I have my mind back, I am well!” And he proceeded to talk completely normal to us. The girl that brought him just stood there with her eyes bulging out of her head, now she was completely speechless. The man went to the microphone and gave testimony of his miracle. Wow, Wow, Wow! Glory to God! Anyone up for a trip to the mental ward at the local hospital?
- A lady had some sort of stroke on her right side. She said the real pain comes when she tries to walk. She winced and struggled to even move her arm or leg. After prayer we told her, ok, walk across the stage. She gave us one of those looks like, “are you kidding me?” She started out slowly and when she came back swinging her arm she went right up the pastor with the microphone and said “I give testimony, I am healed!”

- Women with bad knees that were jumping around the stage as their healing came.

At the end of the night, a few pastors came to me literally jumping up and down for joy. They said “We have never, never seen such power. And God is doing all this thru my hands. I will never be the same again!” There was a deaf lady standing there looking at us, that I had prayed for a number of times with no movement. I took the hands of these pastors and put them on the ears of this deaf lady. In 5 seconds, the deaf lady smiled and said, “My ears are open, I can hear now!” You see, that is why we are here. TO IMPART! These men and women of God are hungry and willing to give their lives for the gospel. They will take the northern part of Sierra Leone for Jesus!

Casey:

Well this was our second night of the crusade and it started out feeling more like an open air church service. Something need to change and quick. The crowd started to leave and start to talk among themselves. We lost them and now we had to try and get them back. Emmanuel took the microphone and started to shout with excitement. This got their attention as they started to turn around to see what all of the commotion was about. Emmanuel then broke into praise and jumped off the stage and started to dance. The dust began to rise as the people started to dance. Ok now we are going in the right direction and this feels right. After Emmanuel finished he passed off the authority to Tony and he gave a short word and a few words of knowledge for healing. I had one that I got as a vision, but I’m not sure if they understood the word. Although all the people that came up for healing in response to the words given were healed instantly. As usual a few always respond to any word given even if it wasn’t for them. So their healing didn’t come as quick, but all were healed. They are all so hungry to be touched by God they don’t care about the word given and there was a bunch of deliverance, too.

After the first several miracles happened so quickly and testimonies were given, Tony gave an invitation for salvation and again the people CAME RUNNING.

For almost all of the evening I was floating from pastor to pastor just helping them out. Really they didn’t need much help though just a few questions here and there. Again, tonight the crowd that came for prayer was well over one thousand plus but with all the help from the pastors prayer time went real quick. I prayed with a pastor for a boy that was blind and the boy began to see light and he could even count my fingers. There was another teenage girl that was also blind and when we finished praying she too could also see light. The healing power has been released in her and she was excited. She is coming back tomorrow for more. The last young man we prayed for was in a wheelchair. He had no feeling in his legs or feet. Tony took him through some deliverance and then we prayed for him. After a short while we asked him what he was feeling in his legs and he said he could feel everything. You could FEEL the muscle begin to throb in his legs. Then Louis looked down and said "look his toes are moving". This was extremely encouraging to see and this young man was also excited as to what God was doing in his body. Praise God! Thank you again to everyone back home praying for us we are on the downhill slide now. Blessings ☺

Louis:

Thank God for His freedom. Man o man tonight was great. I was helping pastors again. That is ok with me I love to help them. I love seeing the look on their faces when someone is set free. I had 7 big deliverances tonight, sweet. Two were witches two were warlocks. Man o man were they fun, haha. You know that God is in the house when the demons have no chance. When they got set free you could see it in their eyes, and they could not stop thanking Jesus for being free. They all said the same thing: "I have been lied to my whole life, and now I know True Power!" They all were so happy to have Jesus in their life now. One of them could not stop crying, she said over and over, "I am free, I am free!" Thank You, God! Now the other 3, well, all were in lust and they said that they have had it. So we got right to work on it. We kick them demons in the mouth. Again you could see it in their eyes that they have been set free. One of them asked what if it comes back. One of the pastors I was with said, I got this, and he had a big smile on his face. I love seeing the pastors take off with the Holy Spirit. All night, I never had the same pastor. Some of them did not even need help. They just took off and did not stop till they saw the healing or that person set free. At the end I was praying with Tony and Skip, now that was cool. We were praying for this young man in a wheelchair who could not move his legs. Man you know God is there when something is going on. He started to move his toes I said to Skip look, look at his toes. Man that was so sweet. Then you could feel his muscles in his leg move. You know God was moving ,he said that he will be back. Thank you, Jesus. Well, love you all, see you soon.
