Glory to God!!!!!!!!!!!! September 14th. At night I had touched and saw Gods love, mercy and glory!!! It's impartation night and worship was very intense Gods glory was in the place again, the Holy Spirit is taking over the whole service, after pastor Tony's message and testimonies we begin to pray for impartation to the people. They are so hungry for the things of God, and once again they all fall down by the power of the Holy Spirit, I prayed for this woman I can feel the Holy Spirit loving her and he wanted me to keep on saying thank Holy Spirit while my one hand is on her belly and she cried so much, and so deep, I can feel the heaviness that's on her, the Holy Spirit told me to tell her "it is done" and she cried harder so I wrapped my arms around her and she started thanking God, and I moved to the next person and after I imparted everything that Gods' giving to the person the Holy Spirit wants me to just say "do your work Holy Spirit and keep on thanking Him", and thanking him until he touches the person. I did the same thing to every person and they cried and fell, then I realized I am just beginning to learn to really obey and do the instructions of the Holy Spirit, its sooo cool!!! I love working with the Holy Spirit because everything becomes so easy. After we prayed for everybody I sat down in one side, and the woman that I gave her a hug came to me with her daughter. She told me her daughter is mute and deaf from birth. OH! I said to her, because I didn't know what to do, and she told me that one of your friends told me that after the service your whole team is going to pray for my daughter, I said "Good". Then I felt better, because I'm not praying for her alone, then pastor tony came and I told him about the girl that we are going to pray for her after the service, and he ask me did YOU pray for her yet? I said NO... and he told me to pray for her I said, okay, and we prayed for her but nothing happened. She still can't hear or speak, so pastor tony asked the mother if they are Christians and she said yes, he asked if any of their parents are involve in any kind of cult, she said yes. Pastor tony said she needed to forgive her parents and break the curse and she did. Pastor Tony had her pray for her daughter, and the girl got HEALED right away. Pastor Tony asked her if she could hear his clap and her eyebrows go up and he told her to say "Jesus" and she says Jesus for the first time since she was born. Her mother was very happy and kept on thanking Jesus... thank you Lord!!! Glory to you God!!!!

I don't know how I can explain the move of God I saw tonight...some young adults that are staying with us did the worship, it was wonderful. We prayed an impartation to 3/4 of the church, imparting to them the revelation God has given each of us. That took about 3 hours. The Glory of God fell on the place. I had prayed for an 11 yr. old who was deaf and dumb. all the others had prayed over her, but with no physical response. Susan was praying with her mom when Pastor Tony got a word from God to ask her mom if she or anyone in her family was involved in the occult. She said the girls grandparents were. The mother repented and renounced their sin and the generational curse associated with it. The mother fell under the anointing and Pastor Tony told her to lay hands on her daughter and advised her to command the ears open in Jesus name. Her ears popped open, and her first word was Jesus!

The whole church went crazy; this is one of their children, healed..it's all so wonderful and but very difficult to put it in words. The team all said the same thing..."how do we put this in a report"? :)

As wonderful as the healing of the little girl was, what Holy Spirit was doing to us, how He was transforming each one of us in the Glory that was in the room, well it was nothing short of miraculous. I was lying on the floor on my back, eyes closed just enjoying His presence in the room. I could hear 100 people singing, praying, dancing, praising, crying, laughing, playing tambourines, then a roar of the crowd all in unison when the little girl got healed. I sat up, looked around to see what had happened, but couldn't figure it out and laid back down and continued the peaceful worship I was in...nothing was better for me at that moment than worship I was having with God at that moment. You see I was lying right by the feet of the mother of the little girl...the mother who had broken the generational curse that the enemy had used as an open door to bring deafness on this little girl. She had used the authority she had been given from God, the name above all names, "that at the name of Jesus, every knee shall bow..." He said "I give you the authority to trample serpents, scorpions,....."She prayed that the deaf ears would be open in Jesus name...and they were open when she prayed using this God given authority.

I remember lying on the floor thinking "I wonder if it was the little girl or the mother" as to why the crowd went crazy, I knew the mother was praying with Susan and pastor Tony had been talking with the mom... When I laid hands and prayed for the little girl earlier, Holy Spirit told me to take a picture of her so I'd have a before and after picture. The first thing that happened to me when I finally got up (well I was sitting up at this point, still not aware of the little girl's healing) the mother asked if she could get a picture of me with some of the girls, her daughter was among the group. They came and sat on the floor and stood around me...remember, the rest of the church is still singing and dancing, and such, celebrating what He's doing for each one of them...

At that point I saw Edgar worshipping within ear shot of me, so I holler "Edgar, what happened?" So much other stuff was going on, he had to stop and think about what I was asking and he goes, "oh, the little deaf and dumb girl can hear and she said Jesus' name out loud!". She has been deaf and dumb since birth! Wow! Wahoo!! God is a Wow God, He's a Wahoo God too!

I'd have to fill many more pages to tell you the other awesome good things God was doing! God is so good and I just can't get enough of Him!

"I want more of you, Lord...I want to be a part of what you're doing, show me Your ways, Lord! and give me the ability to tell others in words what I see when I'm with you!!!!!"
